

Superintendent's Point of View:

As summer is quickly coming to a close for school employees, a reminder that the Opening of School Ceremonies is going to be held at the Hermann Sons Hilltop Boys Camp on August 21, 2007 from 9:00-11:30am. All district employees, retired teachers and community wide preachers are invited to attend this special event. Lunch will be hosted at Gaddis Methodist Church for all current employees and retired teachers. A map to the Hilltop Boys Camp can be found at any of the three campuses or here at Central Office.

The Hispanic Community Meeting date has been set for September 9, 2007 at the Comfort High School Cafeteria at 12:30pm. The district will provide a free Mexican-style luncheon for all persons attending. Administration will be in attendance to answer questions and review local policies.

At this time, Comfort ISD will be observing the following in-service days from August 20-24th:
